

The Fathers of the Affiliation

The Affiliation of the Ancient goes back to the early days of humanity, having submitted, millennium after millennium, the Great Teaching - or 'work on the perception' - which has allowed especially motivated and awakened individuals to know themselves (who I am 'I'?), to begin the transformation of their own selves (changing the field of consciousness) and to self-fulfil their intrinsic Being (that in this way 'becomes flesh' in the human being).

The Affiliation, which has never had a geographical location and whose members have always been linked in a 'supramental network' consists of entirely self-fulfilled beings – The Fathers of the Affiliation - and of its students, who are discreetly present in all continents, civilizations and cultures, where they start and support actions in order to promote the self-fulfilment of all human beings, as well as a social environment conducive to the total development of the individual.

No one can find the Affiliation, or any of its members, for it is what meets the individual when his compassionateness, willingness and ability to serve humanity become unequivocal.

From the Affiliation emanate and have emanate, directly or indirectly, the original teachings of major religions, schools of initiation and centers of wisdom, as well as the innovative vision that cyclically inspired and inspires the profound and unique experience that initiates the philosophical, scientific and aesthetic thought of each era. To this extent, the Direct Transmission, the Work on Perception and Self-fulfillment can never be exclusive of a nation, race or group because they belong to Man as a Human Being in itself.
